

CAI Teachers

University College Dublin
Ireland's Global University

CAI-T Schools' Lecture Day University College Dublin 25 March 2023

All lectures will take place in Lecture Theatre O, which is located on the ground floor of the Newman Building on the UCD Belfield Campus.

- For information on getting to UCD Belfield: <https://ucdestates.ie/commuting/>
- For a map of the UCD Belfield campus: <https://ucdestates.ie/information/ucd-maps/>
- Please remember that most campus cafes/restaurants are not open on Saturdays, so all attendees should bring their own food and drink.
- For more resources supporting the study of Classics and the Leaving Certificate, visit: <https://www.classicsteachers.com/> and <https://accessclassics.ie/>

Provisional Schedule

10:00 Welcome

10:05 – 10:35 Gods and Humans: Experiencing Ancient Temples

- Dr Jo Day

10:40 – 11:10 Gods and Humans: Funerary Practices

- Dr Bridget Martin

11:15 – 11:45 Judging them by their enemies: Alexander & the Persians; Caesar & the Gauls

- Associate Professor Philip De Souza

11:50 – 12:10 Gods and Humans: Morality and Living Well in Plato's Crito

- Dr Christopher Farrell

12:10 – 13:00 Lunch

Please ensure that you bring something to eat and drink. There are vending machines and water fountains for snacks and beverages, but UCD cafes and restaurants will be closed. ***

13:00 – 13:30 Roman Spectacle: the Colosseum and Circus Maximus

- Associate Professor Alexander Thein

13:35 – 14:05 World of Heroes: Odysseus and Aeneas as Heroes

- Dr Nicholas Freer

14:10 – 14:40 World of Heroes: The Aeneid as Propaganda

- Dr Helen Dixon